Postlethwaite, the niche employee share plan specialists, are pleased to announce a new senior member of their team.

David Reuben joins the firm as Share Plans Director from DLA Piper, where he was a partner.

David has over 15 years' experience of advising on all manner of incentives and management tax issues, including:

- Design and implementation of employee share plans; and
- Corporate and personal tax issues arising on MBOs, flotations, mergers and acquisitions, reorganisations and employment terminations
- Tax efficient remuneration planning

David's clients include listed public companies, family companies and individuals.

Robert Postlethwaite comments: "We have always sought to be the lawyers of choice for anyone seeking responsive, practical and technically excellent share plan advice, at transparent and reasonable cost. David will enable us extend our services to a wider range of businesses and advisers and create many new opportunities for us to add value for our current clients"
